

True Colors

The True Colors workshop will help participants to better understand their own strengths, needs, values, motivations and frustrations in both personal and professional life. It allows participants the opportunity to develop the communication skills necessary to work in a diverse environment and helps to foster understanding of and respect for others. True Colors helps to create stronger relationships in the workplace and sets the stage for effective learning.

1

Participants
&
Prerequisites

Audience:

- Administrators
- Teachers
- Counselors
- Classified staff

Prerequisites:

* None

2

Delivery

CPE Credit: 1 or 3 Hours

Option One:

- One Hour Workshop Intro to True Colors

Option Two:

- 3 Hour Workshop including Intro to True Colors and personality theory, exploration of strengths and frustrations based on personal color choices, the influence of colors on work with staff and students, and creation of a learning environment that addresses needs expressed in individual color combinations of staff and students.

3

Follow-Up
Supports

- Provide support in helping schools to build environments, based on True Colors philosophy, that are sensitive to diverse needs of workers and learners